

DieCut

Box Mockup

User Manual

Contents

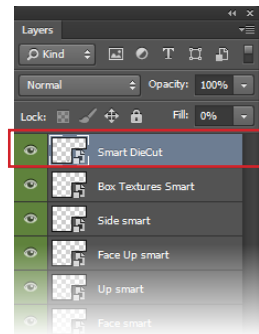

- 3 - Editing a Smart Object
- 3 - Editing a DieCut
- 3 - Editing a Box Design
- 3 - Editing a Box Texters
- 4 - Depth of field

Editing a Smart Object

1. Select the Smart Object from the Layers panel.
2. Choose Layer > Smart Objects > Edit Contents.
3. Insert you design, then choose File > Save.

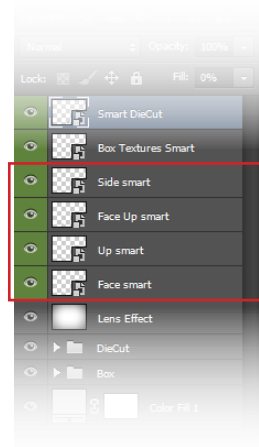

Editing a Die Cut

1. Click the layers marked in green Select “Smart DieCut” Smart Object Layer from the Layers panel.
2. Edit the Smart Object (see “Editing a Smart Object”).

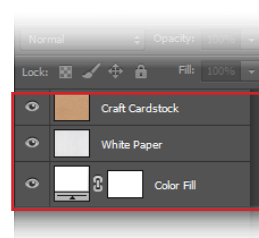

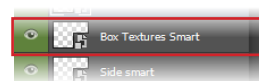

Editing a Box Design

1. Click the layers marked in green Select one of There are Smart Objects:
 - “Face smart”
 - “Side smart”
 - “Face up smart”
 - “Up smart”from the Layers panel “Multiple” or “Linear Burn” are good choices of blending modes..
2. Edit the Smart Object (see “Editing a Smart Object”).

Editing a Box Texters

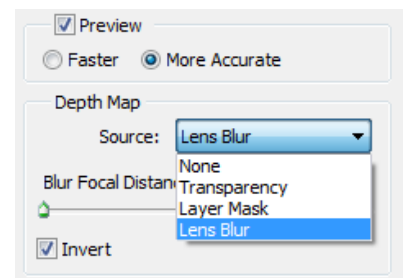

1. Click the layers marked in green Select “Box Textures Smart” Smart Object Layer from the Layers panel There are tow options:
 - “Craft Cardstock”
 - “White Paper”.from the Layers panel “Multiple” or “Linear Burn” are good choices of blending modes..
2. You can change clolor of paper double-click the “Color Fill” choose the color and click OK.

Depth of field

If you want to add depth of field do the following:

1. Flatten image.
2. Go to Filter > Blur > Lens Blur.
3. For Source choose “Lens Blur”.
4. Experiment with the settings and click “OK”

And that's all!!

Thanks for reading and if you like this item and have a minute to rate it, I would be very grateful!