Free Video Editing Assets

Getting Started

Download and Install Fonts

To download the '13 Free 4K Light Leaks,' simply visit the download page on RocketStock.com. If you're reading this, then odds are you've probably already completed this step. If not, navigate to the corresponding blog post located under the "Free Stuff" section at the top of the RocketStock website and click the "download" button.

Your files will download as a .zip file. Unzip it and you'll be able to access the video files and a special surprise.

Using the Light Leaks

Simply drag the light leaks over your desired footage in the NLE of your choice and set the blending mode to Screen or Add.

Premiere Pro: With your footage selected in the timeline, navigate to your effect controls (Shift+5) and select the dropdown arrow next to Opacity. Hit the dropdown menu next to the word Blend Mode and select Screen.

After Effects: With your footage selected in your composition, simply click the dropdown menu under the word "Mode" (see image). If you can't see the "Mode" menu, click the "Toggle Switches /Modes" button at the bottom of the composition. You can select Screen or Add to get the standard light leak effect. Note: Until background footage is placed under your light leak, you won't see any change.

   			 #	Source Name	Mode	T	TrkMat	Parent
			 	1	 01 Blue Transition.mp4	Screen ▾		 None ▾
			 	2	 shutterstock_7189618.mp4	Normal ▾	 None ▾	 None ▾

FCPX: With your footage selected in your timeline, click the inspector button to open up your video effects controls. Scroll all the way to the bottom. Under the section labeled "Compositing" you will see a "Blend Mode" menu. Simply change the blending mode to screen.

Bonus Tip:

Depending on your desired look, you can adjust Hue, Saturation, Blurriness, and Duration using effects built into your editing platform.
